Design, advertising and restaurant food photographer Richard Brown creates stunning still and moving images for clients including: Marriott, Bella Italia, Chiquito and Café Rouge. Richard has been shooting around the UK, America and Europe, for over 15 years and was recently short listed in the Pink Lady Food Photographer of the Year award, where his work was exhibited.

" I have worked with Richard for the last few years and he is paramount in a successful campaign with The Restaurant Group. He is extremely adaptable to all ideas (however crazy I make them!) and amazing at taking great pictures where food is the key focus. Really easy to get on with, Richard is always fun to work with, calm and a real expert at what he does. "

Georgina Marmoy, Lead Designer, TRG: Wagamama, Frankie and Benny's, Chiquito, Firejacks.

Here you will find a selection of my favourite images taken during my recent photoshoots - Richard Brown

"We particularly love Richard's spontaneous creativity – always willing to experiment and suggest things to make a shot better. We pretty much deliver more than we originally set out to on every-single-shoot. A real expert and a genuine pleasure to work with."

Steve Oakey, Creative Director, Eat With your Eyes: Marriott, Sushi Daily, David Lloyd.
